Item #10: Adjournment -

1. A brief public comment period will be allowed for each item under the following agenda areas:
  - a. Public Comment - The public comment section allows members of the public to comment on any public matter under the jurisdiction of the District that is not specifically listed under the agenda. Connected cases and their adjudicative proceedings are not appropriate topics in the public comment section. The Board may not take action on any matter discussed in the public comment section.
  - b. Review/Action Items - The presiding officer will recognize individuals or groups for public comment on the agenda items before or after, at the presiding officers discretion, the Board has discussed the issue on the agenda. The limitation imposed by Board Policy #1070 shall apply to all such public comments.
2. In order to respect individual rights of privacy, comments about any student or staff member, or member of the general public will not be permitted.
