Module 3 Unit 1 Lesson 7	Vocabulary Pride is a noun that means a good feeling you get when you do something well. When you have pride , you feel proud. But it can also have a negative meaning if you think you are better than others or are showing off. Sometimes people say that a show-off is prideful .	Susan B. Anthony Choral Reading Vocabulary: Curdle is a verb that means to make milk start to turn to cottage cheese. You do that by adding something sour, like vinegar. Then the milk starts to get soft lumps, called curds . Many people like to eat curdled milk.	ELA 8:35am - 10:15am
Vocabulary Impatient is an adjective that means not wanting to wait to do something. Sometimes when we are getting ready to go to recess, you are impatient . You want to go right away. The prefix im- means not. Patient is the opposite of impatient . Lend is a verb that means to allow someone else to use something and then give it back later. You could lend a friend your bike. Then your friend		Recess 1 10:15am - 10:30am	Module 3 Unit 1 Lesson 10 Vocabulary: Restless is an adjective that means wanting to wiggle and move. Sometimes you get restless just before recess—you don't want to keep doing your work while you are thinking about how you want to use your time outside. When you act restlessly , though, it might distract your classmates. Ridiculous is an adjective that means really funny or crazy. You might make a ridiculous face or tell a ridiculous story. You would be acting ridiculously . I might ask you not to be ridiculous .
