Choral Reading	Choral Reading	Vocabulary res · on · ate (closed, closed, VCe)	Choral Reading From Chapter 15: page 113 to Chapter 16: page 126	Relief is an adjective that means a feeling that bad things are over. When it's hot, we get relief from a rainstorm. You might feel relief after you score on a penalty kick or a free throw. Relief is a good feeling, especially after you have been uncomfortable or worried.
From Chapter 9: page 67 to Chapter 10: page 80	From Chapter 11: page 81 to Chapter 12: page 93	Vocabulary res · on · ate (closed, closed, VCe) Resonate is a verb that means to fill with sound or emotion. Remember that since it is a verb, we can use it as resonates , resonated , or resonating . If you hear a low sound, it might resonate in your belly. But also, if you see something really beautiful, that feeling of joy can resonate within you.	Vocabulary in · sis · tent (closed, closed, closed) Insistent is an adjective that means never giving up. You might be insistent in asking for a new baseball glove. Your parents might be insistent that you take off your shoes when you enter the house. You are sometimes insistent that we have extra recess, but we have too much to learn.
