	Here Lies the Librarian Revelation is a noun that means something shown or uncovered. The root word is reveal. You can reveal a secret by telling it. You can reveal a scar by showing it. Once you've done that, it's a revelation. Enlightenment is a noun that means the state of being advanced and having gained information or knowledge. I might say that I was enlightened by my coursework in college. You might say that the assembly about fire safety at our school was enlightening. You gained knowledge.	Field Trip 8:40 - 11:45 am	Here Lies the Librarian Initiate is a verb that means to let in or begin. You can initiate a friendship with someone. You can also be initiated into a team or a club. That is called an initiation.
